In Kyoto, where traditional Japanese culture is proudly preserved, treat yourself to two renowned Japanese delights: the rhythm of wadaiko and the taste of washoku.

● Details

Course A

Limited to 1 group per day (2–15 persons)

Hands-on wadaiko and Kyoto-style kaiseki full-course dinner with sake tasting

After enjoying a wadaiko performance at the Taiko Center of Kyoto, you can try playing the drums. At the Jiroku-tei restaurant, enjoy sampling a variety of sake with your full-course dinner of Kyoto-style kaiseki, a traditional Japanese banquet meal.

Course B

Limited to 1 group per day (15–30 persons)

Wadaiko* performance and opulent washoku multi-course dinner

Enjoy a wadaiko performance at Kurochiku Momochitarukan, a traditional Kyoto-style Japanese townhouse. Then, enjoy a stage show of folk dancing and traditional Japanese instruments such as shamisen (three-stringed instrument) and shinobue (bamboo flute) while you dine on a luxurious washoku multi-course dinner.

Note: The plan starts and ends at the venue. Travel expenses are not included in the plan.

OPTION

Live up a banquet, party, or other event!

Wadaiko Road Show

You can also have the performers show you how to play wadaiko!

Professional wadaiko players will go to the venue of your choice and put on a dynamic performance for you and your guests.

Cost: Starting at 125,000 yen (tax included)

The number of performers, scale of performance, and type of performance will be planned according to your budget.
